

Eleanor (Celotti)
Barile

July 3, 1916 - April 24, 2014
Belmont

Eleanor Sabina Barile was the fifth child of a "poor but happy" Italian family, the Celotti's of San Mateo. She passed over to the Loving God of her faith, and is in communion with her husband of 49 years, Tom, and six brothers (Joe, Victor, Ernest, Albert, Louis, Angelo) and one sister (Mary Rolla) who have gone before her. Eleanor was a longtime resident of Belmont where she and Tom raised their five children: Joe (Patricia) Barile, Mary (Randy) Anderson, Jeff (Maureen) Barile, Ginny (Chuck) Prokop, and Lucina (Steve) Aquilina.

She was a loving and well-loved grandmother to David (Eno) Barile, Aimee (John) Miles, Brennan (Lisa) Anderson, Tyler (Becky) Anderson, Corey Anderson (deceased), Myra Anderson, Stephanie Barile, and Chris Barile. She had four great grandchildren, Riley, Hudson, and Peyton Anderson, and Lois Miles. Eleanor will be remembered for her kindness, her simplicity, her deep faith, and her wrinkle-free complexion, even at 97. Her most uttered sentence was, true to form, "Thank you." May we inherit her kindness and gratitude. "Thank you, Mom, Gramma, and Eleanor, for all you have given us."

Funeral mass: Saturday, May 10, 10 am, Immaculate Heart of Mary Church, 1000 Alameda, Belmont. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made in Eleanor's name to St. Anthony's Padua Dining Room in Menlo Park, CA.
